

the deadly seven

lust
greed
pride
sloth
wrath
envy
gluttony

You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.' But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away.

It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

Jesus is protecting...

- 2) The dignity of “the other”

We use a most unfortunate idiom when we say, of a lusting man prowling the streets, that he ‘wants a woman.’ Strictly speaking, a woman is just what he does not want. He wants a pleasure for which a woman happens to be the necessary piece of apparatus.

How much he cares about the woman as such may be gauged by his attitude to her five minutes after fruition (one does not keep the carton after one has smoked the cigarettes). True love makes a man really want, not a woman, but one particular woman. The lover desires the lover herself, not the pleasure she can give.

C.S. Lewis

the gazelles, yes, by all the wild deer: Don't excite love, don't stir it up, until the time is ripe—and you're ready.

I have heard people tell me many times that they do not have anyone to confess to. What they were really saying is that they themselves were not desperate enough to seek out someone that may be able to assist them.... Real deliverance from sexual sin can never be possible until the heart is opened and exposed"
