

GOD CON CARNE

Jesus in the flesh changes everything

The Incarnation changes everything for us

- 1) In relation to God – he passionately pursues us
- 2) In relation to ourselves – I am my body; my body is good
- 3) In relation to the world around

1) What does Jesus do to these 10 guys?

He had equal status with God but didn't think so much of himself that he had to cling to the advantages of that status no matter what. Not at all. When the time came, he set aside the privileges of deity and took on the status of a slave, became human! Having become human, he stayed human. It was an incredibly humbling process. He didn't claim special privileges. Instead, he lived a selfless, obedient life and

The church's worship of God must match the full nature of God...

By “worship” we do not mean music and singing but the alignment of the church to the nature of God and the linking of our ecclesial life to the eternal life of the Trinitarian God. The more we participate in God and according to God, the more missional our churches will become. Quite simply, the more we look like

2) How do we live into our "sent-ness"?

A close-up photograph of a rustic wooden bowl filled with a hearty chili. The chili is a rich, reddish-brown color, suggesting a tomato-based sauce, and is topped with dark kidney beans and small, bright red diced tomatoes. The bowl sits on a light-colored wooden cutting board with a simple handle. The background is a dark, textured wooden surface.

Jesus' Four Incarnational Habits:

from The Forgotten Ways, Alan Hirsch

- 1) Presence – Friendship
- 2) Proximity – Availability
- 3) Powerlessness – Humility
- 4) Proclamation – The Message
